Dear Sir/Madam,

Subject: Sponsorship Support for Kobita Dookhee

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. On behalf of Badminton Confederation Africa (BCA), I am writing to introduce you to an extraordinary talent in African badminton, Kobita Dookhee, and extend an invitation for sponsorship support as she strives to qualify for the 2024 Paris Olympic Games.

Kobita Dookhee, hailing from Mauritius, is a remarkable African Women's Singles and doubles player who has consistently showcased exceptional skills and unwavering dedication throughout her badminton career. With 12 years of relentless practice and a multitude of achievements to her name, Kobita embodies the talent and potential that exists within the African badminton community.

At the national level, Kobita has consistently triumphed, securing numerous accolades that reflect her perseverance and commitment to the sport. Her achievements include the Gold Medal in Women's Singles U15 in August 2012, Gold Medal in Women's Singles U17 in April 2014, Silver Medal in Women's Singles at the National Senior Open in 2015, Gold Medal in Mixed Doubles at the U19 National Junior Open in 2015, Bronze Medal in Women's Singles at the Mauritius International in June 2016, and Gold Medal in Women's Singles at the National Open in December 2016.

Kobita's prowess extends beyond the national level, as evidenced by her exceptional performances in international tournaments. Her accomplishments include the All Africa Under 15 in Cameroon 2012, where she secured the Silver Medal in the Team Event, Bronze Medal in Women's Singles, and Gold Medal in Mixed Doubles. In the CJSOI (MAHÉ) Seychelles 2013 tournament, she claimed the Gold Medal in the Team Event, Silver Medal in Women's Doubles, and Bronze Medal in Women's Singles. Kobita's success continued in the CJSOI Mauritius 2014, where she won the Gold Medal in the Team Event, Gold Medal in Mixed Doubles, and Silver Medal in Women's Doubles.

Further notable achievements include her Gold Medal in the Team Event at the Jeux Des Iles de L'Ocean Indien (JIOI) in Reunion Island 2015, Bronze Medal in the Team Event at the All Africa Under 19 Morocco 2016, Gold Medal in Women's Doubles and Women's Singles at the All-Africa School Championships in Pretoria, South Africa 2016, and Women's Singles Quarter-Finalist and Women's Doubles Semi-Finalist at the Botswana International 2017.

Badminton Confederation Africa

In addition to these accomplishments, Kobita has consistently performed admirably in various international tournaments, showcasing her skills and dedication. Her most recent achievements include winning the Women's Doubles Gold Medal and reaching the Quarter-Finals in Mixed Doubles at the All-Africa Individual Championships in Uganda 2022. She also secured the Bronze Medal in Women's Doubles at the Egypt International 2022, Zambia International 2022, and the Silver Medal in Women's Doubles at the Botswana International 2022.

Kobita currently holds a ranking of 336 in Women's Singles, 70 in Women's Doubles, and 206 in Mixed Doubles according to the Badminton World Federation rankings of 2022. Her exceptional performance and consistent upward trajectory make her a strong contender for the 2024 Paris Olympic Games.

We kindly request your support through sponsorship, which will play a pivotal role in Kobita Dookhee's journey. By investing in her training, providing necessary equipment and resources, and supporting her tournament attendance, you will not only contribute to the growth of African badminton but also empower a young, aspiring athlete with a promising future. Your sponsorship will be a testament to your organization's commitment to nurturing sporting talent and an investment in the bright future of African badminton.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude in advance for considering our sponsorship request. Your support will significantly enhance Kobita's training opportunities, allow her access to vital equipment and resources, and enable her participation in crucial tournaments. Should you require additional information about Kobita Dookhee or her achievements, please do not hesitate to contact me at j.shigoli@badmintonafrica.com. We would be delighted to provide you with any further details you may require.

Sportingly yours,

Jeff Shigoli
